Hopa Ambassador:

The Hopa Ambassador can be found on The Planet Hopa in the city of Hopus.

He will have a green quest marker over his head. When speaking with Axiom, a dialogue option will occur. Make sure to not threaten him, if you wish to recruit the Hopa. Axiom will request that you forward the request to any Hopa Galactic Merchant in space.

Fly out of Planet Hopa, and head for the nearby Hopa Ship Merchant. Speaking with the merchant will complete the quest and recruit Axiom onto the E.A.P.

Sick of 20 min long (short) dota 2 games? sick of finally getting all your 'end game' items and then the game ending? Want to tank and heal dungeon style but not commit a lifetime to raiding?

this game is a perfect solution. I just wish more players would come.

[UPDATE] Review changed to negative due to the game being abandonware. 100 Hours achivement is bugged so I can never get 100% completion. This game could be solid but seriously needs dev attention.

DO NOT BUY.. Weapon interactions are not very good, feels floaty and not good overall. Maps are have no color and are bland for the most part. Sound design is pretty bad right now. The guns dont sound quite right and the footsteps are extremely annoying. I cant even count the amount of bugs. It does nothing better than any of its competition and they've said they're sticking with the simplified guns over fully interatable guns which is what turns me away from this game the most.

Edit: Game is already dead. It's a fund to support the Capcom Pro Tour.

Is that a dragon or a lion behind Ryu?

I would consider it a lion.. Just AWSOME, relembers me my childhood game bomberman and has a simple gameplay and wide customization.

The only thing it needs for now is more maps :). This may not be as good as Crisis in the Kremlin, but it is still an excellent look at the political and economic situation in China in the 70's and 80's.

One thing I am enjoying is how this is the opposite of Crisis in the Kremlin, Russia was falling n 1985 but China is rising in '76.

If you enjoy history and simulation games give this a try, I am attempting to help users with questions as the interface is not perfect.. Fair and balanced game. Pro tip: don't trust Greece

Be Careful it's critical error.

My PC system have 16G Main Rand and Gforce 1050Ti.. but, always OOM Error occur!

I Have another Toposim like Korea...Taiwan..V West Europe...etc.
These DLS is work well.

but South America....Does' work.....

Note: USA Mountain West also Error Program... be careful

If you perfer High Graphic Settin in FSX....South America and US Mountain West couldn't load.... Not recommended if you are a male. Without giving too much away... the game is based around a gimmick. It is nice to see how the art and story are successfully weaved around that gimmick, but ultimately the game turns into a feminist sermon, with some wish fulfilment fantasy thrown in. Undoubtedly the authors are convinced they are giving good advice. They are dreadfully wrong. Bottom line, if your testosterone levels are normal, don't play this. You were warned.. Sword Master VR Is honestly one of the best experiences for the Vive that is out right now

Sword play is fast and chaotic whilst the weapons feel like they have a lot of weight behind them

Here is just a quick video showing off a little of the crazy fun that is the combat <https://youtu.be/tswYBxXd7Qw>. would recommend if you like some anime tiddies. It's, okay, just a wave shooter in the dark. It isn't too bad but a bit pricey for the amount of content it has.

If you find it on sale, sure, go ahead and grab it.. 1 legs add speed

2 legs add more speed

7 Legs add max speed

Massive legs strat to win the game :)
